Note: A Non-Board slate candidate is responsible for his or her own disclosures and compliance with State of Alaska rules including filings with the State if the Non-Board slate candidate uses any materials other than SAI's proxy and proxy statement to solicit proxies. You can find a discussion of the applicable State of Alaska rules at the State of Alaska website concerning ANCSA corporations at <https://www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/dbs/ancsa.aspx> and specifically in the booklet available from the State of Alaska through a link at such website entitled INFORMATION FOR SHAREHOLDERS OF ANCSA CORPORATIONS.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs) ABOUT SAI's DIRECTOR ELECTION PROCESS

How do I run for election to the SAI Board at an annual meeting?

There are 3 ways to run for election to the SAI Board at an annual meeting: 1) as a Board-recommended (Board Slate) candidate on the corporate proxy, 2) as a Non-Board slate candidate on the corporate proxy, or 3) as an Independent Candidate on your own proxy.

Do I have to be a Class A shareholder to run for the Board? Yes.

Are there other requirements to run for the Board? Yes.

You cannot run for the Board if (i) you are an officer or director of another ANCSA corporation; (ii) you are a council member, officer, or employee of Sitka Tribe of Alaska or any tribal entity asserting jurisdiction over Shee Atiká Inc.'s lands or other assets; or (iii) within the past seven (7) years you have been bankrupt, insolvent, had a receiver appointed for you, or been found guilty of a criminal offense (other than traffic violations or other minor offenses).

How do I become a Board-recommended candidate for election to the SAI Board?

Each year the Board requests applications from shareholders interested in applying to run on the Board-recommended slate. Interested Class A shareholders must submit a completed application including all required materials by the stated deadline. For the 2020 Annual Meeting the board has decided to recommend 2 candidates for the 3 open seats.

Is running as a “Non-Board slate candidate” on the corporate proxy the same as running as an “Independent Candidate” on my own proxy?

No. When you run as a Non-Board slate candidate on the corporate proxy, your name will appear on the corporate proxy. SAI will prepare, mail and file the proxy materials, including your information, without any cost to you. Since the corporate proxy materials are sent to every SAI shareholder that holds Class A stock, every shareholder will get a chance to vote for you when they fill out the corporate proxy. As a part of this process, SAI will file all of the corporate proxy materials with the State of Alaska. If you solicit proxies on your own, you are responsible for filing all of your solicitations with the State of Alaska.

When you run as an Independent Candidate, your name does not appear on the corporate proxy and you will be responsible for the cost of preparing and mailing your proxy materials to shareholders. Since Alaska law requires that every candidate prepare a proxy statement, you will be required to prepare a proxy statement that complies with Alaska law and to mail this proxy statement along with your proxy and any other proxy materials to shareholders. Also, Alaska law requires that proxy materials be filed with the State of Alaska at the same time (or before) you begin your distribution to shareholders.

Can I run both as a Non-Board slate candidate and as an Independent Candidate?

No. Before you are allowed to run as a Non-Board slate candidate on the corporate proxy, you must sign an agreement with the corporation that prohibits you from running at the same time as an Independent candidate. The same rule applies to Board-recommended candidates.

If I run as an Independent candidate, will SAI pay my expenses such as travel or the costs of mailing to shareholders, or will SAI prepare my proxy statement, my proxy or any other proxy materials for me? No.

If I run as a Non-Board slate candidate, will SAI provide me with additional corporate proxies? Yes. You must use the exact form of the corporate proxy, without any changes.

If I run as a Non-Board slate candidate, will SAI pay my expenses?

If you comply with all rules, SAI will include your name and description in the corporate proxy statement and on the corporate proxy as a Non-Board slate candidate. SAI will then mail the corporate proxy and proxy statement to all shareholders at SAI's expense. Any other expenses (including any subsequent mailings that you wish to make and any travel and hotel expenses) will be at your own expense.

How do I become a Non-Board slate candidate for election to the SAI Board?

Class A shareholders who want to appear as a Non-Board slate candidate must submit a completed application (indicating your wish to be included as a Non-board slate candidate in Part A of the Application and Disclosure Statement) and all required materials including a signed Candidate Agreement (Attachment E). Candidates must also comply with SAI's Bylaws, the rules and directives of SAI and the laws of the State of Alaska.

If I run as a Non-Board slate candidate, do I have to provide SAI with copies of my advertising and other campaign materials before I use them?

Yes. You are also required to make any changes requested by SAI before you use them.

If I run as a Non-Board slate candidate, will SAI's proxyholders use any of the corporation's discretionary votes to vote for me? No.

If I run as a Non-Board slate candidate, will SAI's proxyholders use any of the votes directed to me to vote for anyone else?

If you remain a candidate through the annual meeting voting process, No. However, if you withdraw from the election, or if you are unable to serve, or if for good cause you will not serve, then the votes directed to you become discretionary to SAI's proxyholders and can be voted for another candidate as set forth in SAI's proxy materials.

What is the cross-out power and does it apply to my candidacy?

Alaska law requires that shareholders be given a right to cross out any candidate that a shareholder does not want proxyholders to vote for using that shareholder's proxy. It applies to all proxies.

Are there rules and regulations that apply to my candidacy?

Any candidate for election to the SAI Board, regardless of whether they are a Board-recommended candidate, a Non-Board slate candidate, or an Independent candidate must comply with all Alaska state laws, regulations and rules and SAI's Bylaws.

You can find a discussion of the applicable State of Alaska rules at the State of Alaska website concerning ANCSA corporations at <https://www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/dbs/ancsa.aspx> and specifically in the booklet available from the State of Alaska through a link at such website entitled INFORMATION FOR SHAREHOLDERS OF ANCSA CORPORATIONS.

If you are running as either a Board-recommended Candidate or a Non-Board slate candidate, you are also required to comply with the Candidate Agreement that you have signed and also with all directives issued by SAI concerning the conduct of your campaign.

If I run as a Non-Board slate candidate or as an Independent candidate, can I get a list of SAI shareholders that are eligible to vote at the meeting?

Upon advance written request, SAI will allow a Non-Board slate candidate or Independent candidate to inspect and copy the record list of shareholders for the meeting.

As an alternative to actually inspecting the record mailing list and making their own copy of that list, a Non-Board slate candidate or Independent candidate may make a written request for a written or electronic copy of the record list. Upon payment of a fee set by SAI, SAI will provide a written or electronic copy of the record list. The record list is not a set of mailing labels and candidates will need to prepare their own set of mailing labels based on the record list.

Candidates are advised that it may take a few days for the SAI office to prepare the record list from SAI's shareholder data base. This is because the shareholder database contains personal and private data relative to shareholders, which must be deleted before the record list can be provided to candidates.

If I run as a Non-Board slate candidate, do I have to make any filings with the State of Alaska?

If your ONLY campaign materials are SAI's proxy and proxy statement, no filing is required because SAI will file these with the State.

However, if you use any other materials, you must first provide those other materials to SAI. Then after SAI approves the other materials, you then must file such other materials with the State at the same time (or before) that you send them or otherwise make the materials available to shareholders. This includes any materials that you make available through the Internet, such as by email, texting or with any social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.) postings.

How do I file materials?

You are allowed to file your materials in a paper format, or a digital media format (CD or DVD), or electronically. If materials are filed in a paper format or a digital media format, you are required to send two copies to the following address:

Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development
Division of Banking, Securities and Corporations
550 W. 7th Avenue, Suite 1850
Anchorage, AK 99501

Telephone: (907) 269-8140

Materials filed electronically may be emailed to anca@alaska.gov or uploaded to the Alaska ZendTo system. For instructions on how to upload materials to the Alaska ZendTo system visit <https://www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/dbs/anca.aspx>.

PLEASE NOTE:

The above information is believed by SAI to be correct as of the date of the publication of this candidate packet and that the indicated internet links work. However, it is the responsibility of the individual candidate to make all necessary filings with the state (other than SAI's proxy and proxy statement, which SAI will file) and it is up to any candidate to verify that the above are correct addresses and procedures and that the indicated internet links work properly at the time the candidate is required to make such filings.
